

How to Develop a Life Plan for Your Child with Disabilities

As a fellow special needs parent, Kacy Seitz, is all-too familiar with the common fears you may have in learning about the topic of long-term planning for your child. Mother to Hudson, her ten year-old daughter who has complex medical needs, Kacy is a financial advisor with her own practice in Kansas City, and currently serves nearly 500 special needs families in 26 states.

Join us from the comfort of your own home, ask questions, and talk with a fellow parent in a non-threatening, non-pressure environment. Topics to be discussed include: Special Needs Trusts, Letter/Memorandum of Intent, Guardianship, How to Fund a Special Needs Trust, ABLE accounts & other important topics, Finding and accessing federal benefits like SSI & SSDI, Medicaid, Waivers, etc.
